

Castle Rock Residence

Scope: New Luxury Residence
Location: Mauston, Wisconsin
Designer: Architectural Design Consultants, Inc.

Nestled on the shores of the Wisconsin River, just south of the Petenwell Flowage in central Wisconsin, you will find this attractive 10,000-square-foot luxury home and family retreat. In addition to the spacious master bedroom suite, complete with its own screened porch, guests will also enjoy the five additional bedrooms, including the children's bunkhouse, which includes both a boy's and girl's bathroom, as well as lockers and cubbies for each of the kids. This home also features 10 bathrooms and a dog shower. The laundry room includes space for two washers and two dryers, and includes two separate closets and plenty of countertop space for folding and sorting clothes.

The house also features a huge, two-story family room that overlooks the water and a matching great room in the basement. The owners and their guests can also take advantage of the large exercise room, card room, and full bar in the basement before heading to the three-level theatre to enjoy a family movie night. Should the owners choose to work from home, they can do so from the large second floor office. The house also includes a large covered and screened porch that overlooks an outdoor pool as well as a screened gazebo for entertaining.
